THE GOLDEN PLOUGH INN UNVEILS GUEST ROOM UPGRADES

(LAHASKA, Pa) February 29, 2008... Visitors have been staying for years at the Golden Plough Inn at Peddler's Village for "business, pleasure, or no occasion whatsoever." Now, there's another reason!

The Golden Plough Inn is completing a substantial guest room refurbishment with a mid-April opening date. The significant upgrade has transformed the 15 guest rooms of the Carousel Building into an updated representation of Bucks County tradition freshened for today's lifestyles. Time-honored styling meets welcoming comfort in the richly appointed rooms, each designed in one of three elegant color schemes. The deluxe guest rooms have been totally redone from floor to ceiling, including new carpeting, furnishings and décor, artwork and window treatments. The $20,000 per room redo features upgraded bathrooms with new tile and fixtures, flat screen televisions, and clock/radios with iPod connectivity. All of these guest rooms offer oversized jetted tubs with folding doors that open to the gas-log fireplaces in the sitting area.

A stay at the Golden Plough Inn of Peddler's Village marries the experience of 18th century charm with world class dining, superb shopping, and a full service day spa. The venue is perfect for corporate meetings with a choice of flexible meeting space and audio-visual support featuring both wired and wireless connections. The Golden Plough Inn, in conjunction with the Peddler's Village catering/banquet facilities, is also an ideal spot for seminars, reunions and corporate retreats that require overnight accommodations.

Whether for business or just personal escape, a warm welcome and great hospitality always await you. The 70 sumptuous rooms are relaxing and comfortable; each room is uniquely styled and elegantly furnished. An overnight stay at Golden Plough Inn also includes a welcome bottle of champagne and a snack basket as well as a delicious continental breakfast for two.
