Peddler's Village Presents Peach Month, weekend sidewalk sale, and other special events in August

Weekend-long Summer Sidewalk Sale takes place Friday, August 5 through Sunday, August 7; Live entertainment every weekend plus peach-inspired specials at Village restaurants each day

Lahaska, PA—In August, Peddler's Village, a shopping, dining, lodging, and family entertainment destination in the heart of historic Bucks County, PA, will host a Peach Month. The event, which will include peach specials in Peddler's Village restaurants every day, will kick off with a weekend-long Summer Sidewalk Sale starting on Friday, August 5, with live music performances, family activities, and outdoor sales of fresh peaches, peach pies, and other peach products taking place on Saturday, August 6 and Sunday, August 7. Through August 31, large sand sculptures depicting Bucks County icons and eliciting beach themes will be on display every day.

On Saturday, August 6 from 6 to 8 p.m., Peddler's Village will continue the family fun with a free Beach Blanket Bash, a 60s-themed dance party celebrating its 60th anniversary. The Beach Blanket Bash, which will take place on the Visitor & Event Center Field and under the Event Tent, will feature live music by the Mojo Kings Dance Band, a hula hoop contest, a dance off, lawn games, fire pits with s'mores, a foam party, and more, as well as pay-as-you-go food trucks and drinks.

Subsequent August weekends will feature live entertainment and Peach Month merchandise, local peaches, pies for sale at the Village General Store, and the August restaurant specials. The Water Wheel Food Tent will be serving food specials and peach-infused beverages.

Other events in August include weekend murder mystery and comedy shows, sand sculpting workshops on August 13 and 14, and Food Truck Thursday on August 25.

Peach Month will feature:
