Peddler's Village Presents Special July Events

The Red, White, & Blue BBQ Bash will take place on July 2-4, followed by Bluegrass & Blueberries weekends starting July 9; Free sand sculpture display continues through August 31

Lahaska, PA — Peddler's Village, a countryside shopping, dining, lodging, and family entertainment destination in the heart of historic Bucks County, PA, will host its annual Red, White, & Blue BBQ Bash, an all-American celebration and picnic on July 2 through 4, followed by Bluegrass & Blueberries on July weekends starting July 9. Both events, which are free and open to the public, will feature live entertainment and free concerts, pay-as-you-go outdoor food and drinks, and family activities. These July events will complement a free summer-long display of event large sand sculptures created by four world-renowned master sand sculpting teams.

The Red, White, & Blue BBQ Bash will feature an all-American-style picnic with classic barbeque food available for purchase, as well as live music. On Saturday, July 2, from 5-7 p.m., guests can enjoy a free outdoor concert by up-and-coming country musicians Martin and Kelly. The duo has been a supporting act for Willie Nelson, Little Big Town, Alabama, The Band Perry, and Brad Paisley, among others. The Galena Brass Band will be performing each day, and the Cheddar Boys will be performing on Sunday afternoon. On Monday, July 4, guests can take part in old-fashioned games, including a three-legged race and water balloon toss as well as the annual watermelon eating contest.

Bluegrass & Blueberries kicks off on Saturday, July 9 and Sunday, July 10 with a lineup of local and regionally
