Fire & Frost Fun Event in Early January Kicks Off a Festive 2024 for Peddler's Village

Lahaska, PA — Peddler's Village, a countryside shopping, dining, lodging, and family entertainment destination in the heart of historic Bucks County, PA, will host Fire & Frost Fun on four Friday and Saturday evenings in early January. The popular, Instagrammable event will feature dozens of ice sculptures, fire artistry, ice carving, a live DJ, and a family-friendly "Find Jack Frost" scavenger hunt.

Fire & Frost Fun will take place from 4 p.m. - 8 p.m. on Friday, January 5; Saturday, January 6, Friday, January 12, and Saturday, January 13. Additionally, on weekdays from Monday, January 8 through Thursday, January 11, guests can enjoy a Fire & Frost Fun happy hour, frosty food and drink specials, and a daily "Find Jack Frost" scavenger hunt. Guests interested in overnight stays can book a special package at the on-property inn, the Golden Plough Inn, that includes four complimentary drink tickets and a s'mores-making kit.

Attendees will have the opportunity to view dozens of hand-crafted ice sculptures, including an ice throne and ice lounge, and to watch talented artists from Ice Concepts sculpt blocks of ice into art. Visitors can also enjoy fire artistry, fire breathing, and juggling performed by members of the Philadelphia circus community, family activities, fire pits, photo op spots, and outdoor food and drinks. Families will be able to participate in the Village-wide Find Jack Frost scavenger hunt in which children can win free prizes and adults can register to win a future overnight stay at the Golden Plough Inn. Hot beverages will be available on the Village Green.

Peddler's Village shops and boutiques will also be presenting special January sales that will continue through the month. Admission and parking are free. Shops will be open until 8 pm on Friday and Saturday evenings.

Other upcoming events taking place in 2024 include the Village of Chocolate which will feature culinary workshops and dining events, Winter Wedding Show, PEEPS® in the Village, and Celebrate the Green, among dozens of other free events.
