Peddler’s Village to Present Fifth Annual “PEEPS® in the Village” Event

Dozens of inventive marshmallow creations will be on display from March 11 through April 14

Lahaska, PA — Peddler’s Village, a countryside shopping, dining, lodging, and family entertainment destination in the heart of historic Bucks County, PA, will be presenting its fifth annual PEEPS in the Village competition and display beginning on March 11, 2024. The popular free event, which continues through April 14, showcases a hundred handmade sculptures, dioramas, and wall art created with PEEPS® marshmallow candies. Cash prizes are awarded to winners.

All members of the public are invited to participate and can register to enter their creation by March 1 for a chance to win cash prizes. Entries must be dropped off to the Visitor & Event Center by March 10. The public display begins on March 11; through March 31, guests can vote for their favorites using paper ballots or the free Peddler’s Village mobile app. In 2023, Peddler’s Village welcomed more than 20,000 visitors to the display.

Spring is a popular time to visit Peddler’s Village. In April, colorful tulips line the brick walkways of the 18th century-style shopping hamlet. PEEPS® in the Village is free and open to the public each day, with the exception of March 31, Easter Sunday.

On Sunday, April 14, Cock ‘n Bull, the flagship restaurant of Peddler’s Village, will present a PEEPS®-Tacular Family Brunch featuring buffet-style dining, live entertainment, and take-home crafts for children. For overnight stays between March 11 and April 14, the on-site hotel at Peddler’s Village, the Golden Plough Inn, is offering a PEEPS® in the Village package that includes breakfast for four at Buttonwood Grill, a $20 food voucher that can be used at any of our Peddler’s Village-owned restaurants, two activity passes for Gigglesberry Fair, and a voucher for a PEEPS® product from the Village General Store.
