Peddler's Village to Host Fire & Frost Fun on Four January Evenings

Winter festival featuring ice sculptures and fire artistry performances will take place on Friday and Saturday evenings, on January 9th, 10th, 16th, and 17th

Lahaska, PA — Peddler's Village, a countryside shopping, dining, lodging, and family entertainment destination in the heart of historic Bucks County, PA, will host its annual Fire & Frost Fun winter festival on four Friday and Saturday evenings in January. Against the backdrop of a magical display of a million lights, the outdoor festival will feature dozens of ice sculptures, fire artistry performances, and a family-friendly Jack Frost-themed scavenger hunt. The event will take place from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m. on Friday, January 9; Saturday, January 10; Friday, January 16; and Saturday, January 17. January 18, 2026, is also the final night of the free holiday lights display. Additionally, Peddler's Village shops and boutiques will be offering special sales throughout the month of January. Admission and parking are free.

Attendees will have the opportunity to view dozens of hand-crafted ice sculptures, including a photo-ready ice throne, and to watch talented artists from Ice Concepts sculpt blocks of ice into art. Visitors can also enjoy fire artistry, fire breathing, spinning, and juggling performed by the Philadelphia School of Circus Arts & Airplay as well as family activities and outdoor food and drinks. Fire artistry performances will take place at 5:15 p.m., 6:00 p.m., 6:45 p.m., and 7:30 p.m. Live ice sculpting will take place on Fridays at 6 p.m. and on Saturdays at 5 p.m. Families can also participate in the Find Jack Frost scavenger hunt in which children can win free prizes (while supplies last). Hot chocolate and cider will be available on the Village Green. Village restaurants will be open, and food trucks will also be on site.

Shops will be open until 8 p.m. during Fire & Frost Fun. For a full schedule of entertainment and food trucks, visit PeddlersVillage.com.
