On the left, a green building features a circular sign for 'THE TOTAL ANIMAL' with a lion logo and the text 'Established 1973'. Above it, a smaller sign reads 'HEWN'. # Testimonials

“Working with Peddler’s Village was my first experience doing corporate sponsorship events, and I am so grateful that we chose them for a partnership. From the initial walkthrough of the Village to the negotiations and execution, there were no experiences that made me wonder if it was a good fit. If you are looking for a place to advertise your business face-to-face with potential customers, this is it.

Justin Seery is the man who made this process seamless and stress-free. He was always available and quick to respond, but also was always willing to lend a hand with our set-up process. Justin showed a genuine excitement for our company and our employees.

As a kid, I grew up going to Peddler’s Village on the weekends with my family. Now I can say that the magic I always felt there was real!”

- Fred Beans Automotive Group

“Peddler’s Village has been a fantastic partner for our Casamigos activations. The holiday village is consistently well organized and thoughtfully produced, and the setting provides an ideal environment for cheerful, relaxed interactions. Guests are curious, receptive, and genuinely excited to sample something new, making each activation both impactful and enjoyable for our team and for guests alike.

Similarly, working with Justin and his team has been a pleasure. Their organization, flexibility, clear communication, and hands-on support make the planning and execution process seamless, and we truly value the collaborative relationship we’ve built.”

“Passanante’s Home Food Service has proudly sponsored events at Peddler’s Village for years, and it continues to be one of our most valuable partnerships. Being onsite during their seasonal events has consistently been a strong lead generator and an effective way for us to connect with families across the region.

Peddler’s Village attracts thousands of families from all over Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York to one central location. This gives us a unique opportunity to introduce our service to a wide audience and engage with a large radius of potential customers in a single setting.

Our long-term sponsorship has played a major role in raising brand awareness and generating future business. We have found tremendous success marketing at their annual events and look forward to continuing this partnership for years to come.”

- Passanante’s Home Food Service

“Beyond the professional support, this partnership has delivered tremendous value to our business. Setting up at Peddler’s Village events has allowed us to meaningfully engage with our local community while also introducing our brand to thousands of visitors who travel from out of town. These events give us the unique opportunity to showcase our products, educate new audiences, and strengthen our presence in a vibrant, high-traffic destination.

Through consistent collaboration, strong attendance, and the personal commitment Justin brings to every interaction, Peddler’s Village has become one of our most beneficial and rewarding event partners. We look forward to continuing—and growing—this relationship for years to come.”

- Fitz Fish Ponds

“TKPR is proud to partner with Peddler’s Village as a sponsor of their Christmas event and to have the opportunity to promote our holiday films at the Peddler’s Village Holiday Kickoff Weekend.
